BIG ARENA GOING UP AND EVERYTHING IN SHAPE FOR THE BIG FIGHT

Reno, Nev., June 27.—With his arrangements underway, fighters working hard, every hour bringing him assurances of fan-laden Pullmans starting for Reno from all points of the compass, Tex Rickard, nerve center of it all, feels that the big fight will be a success.

Around the fighters' camps it looked as if Sunday parties had taken possession. At Moana Springs there was a continuous procession of automobiles, carriages and motor cycles and pedestrians all day Sunday. Jim Corbett was master of ceremonies at the quarters and spent most of the day at the center of interested groups. Jeffries was not to be seen. He went fishing up the Truckee river.

Johnson Happy.
Jack Johnson was his own master of ceremonies. The big negro was in his most affable humor, which is saying a good deal. He began the day with a brisk eight mile walk, then, postponing his ring work until the cool of evening, spent much of the time entertaining the visitors who thronged the resort. It is one of Johnson's traits that he likes to see everybody happy. He was keeping things going Sunday, urging singers in the cafe to greater efforts, calling this or that bystander into the fun and occasionally assisting the general merriment.

Nearly everybody in Reno visited one or the other of the camps Sunday. Most of them dined both. There were many women in the curious throngs and their summer flairs lent a festive appearance to the assemblage at each camp. The rank and file of the Fourth of July audience has not yet put in its appearance. When it comes it will come with a rush and the railroad officials are preparing to handle the greatest traffic congestion the city has ever known.

Arene Goes Up Fast.
The entire framework of the arena has been set in place. The fast work of the contractors has greatly pleased promoter Rickard and it is announced the open air pavilion will be completed by Saturday.

Two hundred men, under the direction of gang bosses, have followed the plan laid out by contractor McLaughlin and section by section the sides of the octagon, with the heavy timbers, have been placed. Most of the heavy work was completed in 14 working hours. The arena is being built from the same general plans as for the one that was to have been constructed in Frisco, the only difference being that the size of the structure has been materially reduced.

Capt. William L. Cox of the Nevada state police, arrived with six of his picked desert riders Sunday. He comes under the order of governor Dickerson and will be joined by more of his force later. Capt. Cox and his men will assist the local authorities in preserving order on the day of the fight and until that time.

Tom Corbett of San Francisco, who was appointed official betting commissioner for the contest by Tex Rickard, is expected to arrive Wednesday morning to handle the wagers that will be made. Much interest is displayed as to the probable rate that will rule. The wagers are now 10 to 5 in favor of Jeffries.

Sullivan Sees Jeff.
John L. Sullivan was the visitor of the day at the Jeffries camp. He met his old time rival, James J. Corbett, and was led by him into conference with Jeffries and Joe Choynski. Gathered in the shade of a cottonwood tree, the four heavyweights who have contributed more, perhaps, to ring history than any other four men, enjoyed a pleasant chat, at the end of which Jeffries reached for his rod and reel and was off for a mess of bass.

"Reno's Disgrace."
"Reno's disgrace," was the subject of an address delivered last night by Rev. L. M. Burwell, pastor of the Methodist church of this city, before his congregation. The minister characterized the Jeffries-Johnson battle as the crowning shame of a city which boasted in its "possession of gambling halls, divorce courts and saloons," and declared that the fight would have a brutalizing effect upon the community, as it made him in its wake the "riff-raff of humanity and off-scourings of the country."

The speaker declared that even California, notorious for "crude civilization," had rejected the fight which Reno welcomed with open arms. At the conclusion of his address, Rev. Mr. Burwell admitted that it would be impossible to prevent that contest.

"Gentleman Jim" was conveniently on hand when Sullivan's automobile drew up. "I guess everything is all right now," said the old fighter as he grasped Corbett's outstretched hand.

"Sure," was the quick reply and as they stood chatting together a battery of cameras trained upon the pair by newspaper photographers opened fire.

William Muldoon coming up accompanied Corbett and Sullivan into the rubbing room, where Jeffries was stretched on a slab. The big fellow held out his hand in welcome and John L. shook it warmly as he cried: "Hello, young fellow! By heavens, you're looking great!"

"And I'm feeling great," Jeffries told him. Then for a quarter of an hour they talked about battles of a bygone day, after which with another handshake all around, Sullivan returned to Reno.

FIGHT FANS LEAVE FOR THE RINGSIDE

New York, N. Y., June 27.—An exodus of sporting men for Reno is now on. Large numbers of easterners left here today for this Jeffries-Johnson fight. The opinion is still in favor of Jeffries, but there has been little betting, most of those intending to wager preferring to place their bets at the ringside.

RAIN ONLY SAVES EL PASO TEAM

Mavericks Lose Saturday's Game and Start to Lose Sunday's at Cananea.

Cananea, Sonora, Mexico, June 27.—A merciful rain fell during the second inning of the Cananea-El Paso game Sunday, stopping the slaughter of the Mavericks after Cananea had scored three runs off of seven hits, all made off of Wingo Anderson's delivery. The local slug was going for a victory when the rain interfered and stopped the game. Thomas opposed Anderson in the box and allowed but two hits, neither of which went for runs. The score of the three innings played was:

Cananea.....3 7 0
El Paso.....0 2 1
Batteries: Cananea, Thomas and Whaling; El Paso, Anderson and Merritt.
Saturday's Game.
Little Fat Wylie played a mean, low down, trick on his former teammates, the Mavericks from El Paso, Saturday. With no more feeling than a Cardiff giant, Little fat boy went in and pitched nine innings and got away without allowing his former teammates to score but three runs while his recently acquired friends, among the Canaanians, pitched eight in the nine innings. Wylie was working good and he slapped his offerings over where the El Paso hitters just could not connect. Booles pitched for El Paso and allowed one more hit than did Fat Wylie, the total on the El Paso run, hit and error column including nine hits for the red haired one. Goodman, sur name Bill, slapped out a home run on Booles, almost breaking Red's heart and incidentally the game for there were two yellow legged runners on base and the total amounted to three additional for Cananea. Bert Whaling scored four runs all by himself with three singles in a pinch. Goodman's feelings was also a feature of the game, the heavy hitter accepting nine chances in the field. The score was:

Cananea.....3 7 0
El Paso.....0 2 1
Batteries: Cananea, Wylie and Whaling; El Paso, Booles and Merritt.

How It Was Done.
There were no runs obtained in the first inning, both sides going out in one-two-three order.

In the second Cananea was first man up for El Paso. He singled, Ketchum singled; Gill singled; Wright fled out to left garden; Hodge bled to third. Nalle dropping the ball, his second error, Jackson and Ketchum scoring. Goodman was then placed on third, being taken out of left, and Gamble was placed in the garden. Booles failed to reach first ahead of a small one to two; Gowan walked; Earthman struck out. Two runs.

Cananea failed to connect. Third inning—Merritt singled; Jackson singled; Ketchum tried to run one out to first, but failed; Gill sacrificed, Merritt scoring; Wright fled out to short. One run.

Wylie fanned; Goodman failed to reach first on a little bingle; Adams singled on error of Wright; Hodges hit to short and Adams was forced out at second. No runs.

Fourth inning—El Paso failed to connect. Bob Whaling was first man up for Cananea and walked; Gamble hit to short and Bob was forced out at second; Tom Whaling singled; Brand singled; but Tom was caught; second; Brand steals second; Bert Whaling sends a hot one to right, scoring Gamble and Brand; Wylie failed to beat out a little one. Two runs.

Fifth inning—Jackson fouled out to third; Ketchum out at first; Gill also fails to reach the initial sack. No runs. Goodman flies out to left; Adams takes first by being hit by pitched ball; Hodges fanned; Bob Whaling fouled out. No runs.

Here time was called for about 10 or 15 minutes on account of the increasing wind and the large amount of dust. It also rained a little.

Sixth inning—Thomas goes into right, replacing Hodges, who is benched on account of "sassing" the ump on account of a close decision. It was all about a foul hit by Bob Whaling which struck about six inches foul at first sack. Wright was first man up for the visitors. He failed to reach first; Hewitt likewise; Booles gets to first, being hit by pitched ball; Gowan singles; Earthman singles; Merritt fails to reach first ahead of ball. No runs.

Gamble walked; Tom Whaling bunted to pitcher, Gamble gets caught at second; Brand caught; Bert Whaling bunted and got away with it, also scoring Tom; Wylie fanned; Goodman gets a homerun, sending the ball over to the left field fence, scoring Tom and Brand; Adams failed to connect. Four runs.

Seventh inning—No runs. Eighth inning—No runs for El Paso. Tom Whaling singled; Brand sacrificed; Bert Whaling gets two-bagger, scoring Tom, and is spiked accidentally at second; Nalle runs for him; Wylie fled out to center; Goodman singles, and in attempting to steal second, Bert scores, Goodman then allowing himself to be put out. Two runs.

Ninth inning—Gowan singled, caught at second on Earthman's little bingle; Merritt flies out to third; Jackson fanned. No runs.

BISBEE TAKES TWO STRAIGHT
Clifton Team Is Defeated Saturday and Sunday by the Maroons.

Bisbee, Ariz., June 27.—Bisbee walked away with the big end of the score against Clifton Saturday, the final scoring being 10 to 4 in favor of the local club. Clifton's crack players from Pennsylvania did not arrive in time for the Sunday game and the old lineup was used.

The Saturday Game.
Bisbee got to Clifton for a total of 19 runs in the Saturday game, making the exhibition one of foot racing more than baseball. Clifton sent Abbott in to start the pitching, but lasted but five innings, and was followed by Scanlon, Graham and Pink Grindle each got home runs off of the Clifton pitchers. The arrival of six Pennsylvania university ball players, including a pitcher and catcher, was expected to improve the Clifton club before it left Bisbee. The score of the baseball game Saturday was:

Bisbee.....19 3 3
Clifton.....3 12 6
Batteries: Bisbee, McGreager and Grundle; Clifton, Abbott, Scanlon and Brubacher.

CACTUS DOPE

By Lee Hamilton

Clifton and Morenel have at last broken into the select class. The result is what was confidently expected. Morenel made a remarkable showing, but lost two hard-luck affairs in the Friday and Saturday sessions with Douglas. It was hoped heretofore that Morenel would win one of the games, just to make it interesting. Douglas is jumping up just a little too much to suit anybody, even Bisbee. At that, there were many Douglas fans holding their breath for fear the cliff dwellers would slip it over. They evidently have some good pitchers, as the Douglas swatters could glean no more from their delivery than the league newcomers got from the veteran Kane and Humphries, touted as fresh from the Philadelphia field. From the big margin attained by successive victories over Clifton, however, Morenel can afford to lose one or two.

What an awful slaughter, on the other hand, Clifton must have received at the hands of the hard-hitting Bisbee Maroons. Everybody on the team connected, "Pinkie" Grindle and Graham got home runs, while the three-baggers were too numerous to count—almost. Twenty-three bingles was the total. Gregory, the new recruit from Peoria, Ill., officiated for Bisbee and did not have to do anything but take it easy. Somebody in El Paso was walking around with a bet all day Saturday that Bisbee would score better than 15 runs. But their money went begging, as nobody was willing to take a chance. Clifton, however, doesn't intend to take a back seat much longer. Six players, all from Penn State university, were due to arrive in Bisbee Sunday to strengthen the hill topers. Manager Eiley promises a more formidable lineup in games to come.

And now comes Bisbee with a holler against Chevalier, the pitcher who went up there, landed in the morning, making a change of about 3000 feet in altitude, pitched in the afternoon, came out and was released the same night. In addition to stating that Chevalier was peeved, it is said at Bisbee that everything is in harmony between the board of directors and the team and that nobody is dissatisfied but Chevalier.

Fat Wylie turned the trick. Ever since he and the Mavericks parted company it has been his off-expressed desire to beat the club that turned him loose. Saturday his wishes were realized and Fat is now a happy little parcel, as he's worked a full game and won a permanent berth with the Quisen Sabes. This was a little in doubt previously, as his work had been somewhat. Chevalier wasn't ungrateful, however, as was stated, for the assistance the true fans up there rendered him. The only kick Joe has coming, he says, is that he didn't have a fair trial or a chance to get used to the altitude.

Saturday night when baseball returns were late, the fans hung about town until the lights went out waiting to hear the news from Cananea. Too bad telegraphic facilities are so bad across the border. Yet the Mexican government might have been at fault, poring over the bingles and bunts, for two or three hours to see if they contained anything of revolutionary import. The wires are run by the government and everything, particularly at such a time, has to be scrutinized. Any way, commend El Paso fans for their patience, although in this case it was only rewarded with additional disappointment, more than the delay of the message brought. El Paso lost.
